

NEW JAPANESE BANK OPENS WITH FINE BUSINESS

Baron Sumitomo's Institution is Private House and Has $100,000 Capital

The Sumitomo Bank of Hawaii, a private banking institution, owned by Baron Kichiyomasa Sumitomo of Osaka, Japan, a multi-millionaire and the principal stockholder of the Sumitomo Bank, Ltd., of Osaka, Japan, commenced to do business by opening its doors at 10 o'clock this morning under the management of M. Kawakami, who has under him a competent staff.

The premises known as the Wilder building, located at the corner of Port and Queen streets, an old landmark, have been renovated and altered at the hands of K. Matsunaga's carpenter. On the windows and doors, in large gold letters, both in Japanese and in English, are written the words, "The Sumitomo Bank of Hawaii, Ltd."

Long before the opening hour people anxious to make deposits and open accounts were waiting. They were forthwith attended to. The bank, which will do a general banking business, will start with a capital of $100,000 and will be increased from time to time if occasion should so require.

Being a private institution, its liability is unlimited, as it is backed by Baron Sumitomo's millions and his financial worth is known throughout the world.

ADOPTION KEEPS LAD FROM REFORM SCHOOL

Kind-hearted charity interested for little John Apio on Saturday when, following a decree from juvenile court which sentenced him to the industrial school for his minority, Mrs. John Hillebrand appeared to ask that the youth be given over to her care. Sam Hobbie of the Y. M. C. A. donated $7.50 for clothes and instead of riding out with the juvenile officer to Waialeale, John rode home with his new found guardian.

Idleness brought the 13-year-old lad before the judge, his appearance on Saturday being for a fourth recent offense. Judge Ashford looked into the history of the lad and finally decided to place him in the reform school as the best place available for him.

'WHITE WINGS' NOW WORKING ON THE STREETS

When the street sweepers of Honolulu went to work this morning they were arrayed in their new white uniforms consisting of a white cork helmet and duck suit. Their appearance is very pretty and a decided improvement over the old method of allowing them to wear what they pleased. The suits are also much cooler and the men appreciate the improved condition under which they are now working. Each man is allowed two suits and new ones will be supplied when these wear out.

The idea of giving Honolulu street cleaners, or "white wings" as they are now called, the white suits originated with George Collins, city engineer, but years ago New York tried the experiment satisfactorily.

KOREAN HANGS HIMSELF

WAILUKU, Maui, Sept. 29.—By using his belt to form a noose, Chey Ban Huk, a Korean laborer, hung himself at Camp 9, Punene, early yesterday morning. When the man was found by fellow workers life had left the body. The Korean went to the edge of the camp just at daybreak, and after slipping the belt through the buckle, he fastened one end to the eaves of a small vacant house with a nail. He then stepped upon a box and slipped the noose around his neck, afterwards kicking the box from beneath him. The drop was only a few inches, but it was sufficient to cause death. The suicide is believed to have been mentally unbalanced.

FALLS TO HIS DEATH

That Umomatsu Oda, the 17-year-old Japanese who was killed by a 50-foot fall in the Punene mill a week ago, came to his death by accident was the verdict of the coroner's jury summoned this week to hear the evidence. Oda was knocked to the floor of the mill while a big piece of iron pipe was being placed in position by a derrick. Among the witnesses were Dr. Sawyer, William Lougher and William Serby. The members of the coroner's jury were John Garcia, W. R. Boote, Koma Apo, Manuel Picanco, Luke Rogers and K. Chong.

WOMEN PLAN BAZAAR

The members of the Woman's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd are very busy with arrangements for their annual bazaar, to be held in the gymnasium on Saturday evening, October 21. At the next meeting of the guild, to be held with Mrs. W. H. Field at the Maui Hotel on Tuesday afternoon of the coming week, final preparations for the bazaar will be made. Appreciating the generous patronage of the community in the past, the guild aims to do its best for success again this year. As in the past few years, the bazaar will open with a musical entertainment, for which the president of the guild has an excellent program arranged. There will be the usual dance in connection with the bazaar.

SCHOOL IS OPEN AGAIN

After several weeks' delay the Hamakua Grammar school, which was closed by Inspector Osmont on account of its insanitary condition, was allowed to open again last Monday. This was after it had been placed in good condition by the installation of patent toilets. The Huelo school, which the inspector had threatened to close, is also being put in a sanitary shape.

PETE OF NATIONS

The annual bazaar of the Makawao Ladies Aid Society, to be held in the community house, Paia, on Saturday, October 14, 1916, is to be a "Pete of Nations." Each of the eight booths will represent a different nation and the program of entertainments will consist of selections appropriate to the nationalities represented.

The booths will be especially attractive and the program which will begin at 7 p. m. should be unusually elaborate and interesting. No admission fee will be charged.

News has been received in Honolulu of the death in Oakland, Cal., Friday of Louis Meyers, engineer of the Kailhi government pumping station. A wife and children living at 22 Parker lane, near Liliha street, survive him here. Meyers was a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Eagles. He was born in California and came here 46 years ago.

Mrs. Edward Pierce, aged 70, died Saturday night at her home in Kaimuki. She was born in Wales and had been here since 1887. Her husband, who was for years bookkeeper for the Oahu sugar plantation on Hawaii, died here in June. A son and daughter survive. They are Mrs. R. W. Podmore of 116 Ninth avenue, Kaimuki, and Samuel E. Pierce of Gardner. The funeral was Sunday afternoon. Rev. L. H. Tracy officiated. Burial was in Nuuanu cemetery.

TWO IMPORTANT MEETINGS WILL BE HELD TUESDAY

The quarterly business meeting of the Women's Society of Central Union church will be held at 11 a. m. in the Bible school rooms tomorrow. Reports of the past quarter's work will be given. At 12:30 the meeting will adjourn for a basket luncheon in the Parish house, where the house committee of the society will serve coffee. All ladies interested are invited to bring basket luncheon and remain for the social intermission at noon. Gentlemen may also be invited for this luncheon. At 2 the monthly meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions will be held, with a very interesting program in charge of the foreign committee. As it is the first meeting of the new year, a large attendance is especially desired.

MORE MEN THAN WOMEN HAVE APPENDICITIS

Surgeons state men are slightly more subject to appendicitis than women. Honolulu people should know that a few doses of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ka, often relieve or prevent appendicitis. This mixture removes such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. THE INSTANT, easy action of Adler-ka is surprising. GRAYSTONE WILL ACCOMMODATE NO WOMEN AS GUESTS

In the columns of a Honolulu publication appears a tiny five-line notice which on its face is apparently nothing out of the ordinary, but reading between the lines one might find considerable significance. It reads as follows:

NOTICE—The Graystone Hotel, corner of King and Nuuanu streets, from this date on will be strictly a men's hotel. By order of the management.

"It's true, all right," said Fred M. Kiley, with a grin, when seen by a Star-Bulletin reporter this morning, "and I'm going to follow out that order to the letter."

Kiley is manager of the Graystone and as such has ordered not only that no women in the establishment shall be let to women, but also that the servitors in the Graystone shall be men.

"It's all off with the women here so far as I am concerned," he explains, "for I always have more than enough men to fill my rooms. Why should I bother with the women. They're more bother than a man and sometimes they cause a peck of trouble."

U.S. EMPLOYEES BENEFITED BY CONGRESS' ACT

Ample Compensation Provided When Injured or Killed as Result of Accident

Widows or widowers, children, brothers, sisters, grandparents and grandchildren of employees of the federal government will be provided for in case of the accidental death of the employee, or his or her death as the result of an accident, according to a law passed by the last Congress, copies of which have been received by Marshal J. J. Smiddy.

Under this act employees of the government who are injured are generously provided for during their illness, a large percentage of their wages being paid them while totally or partially disabled.

Following are excerpts from the act:

"That the monthly compensation for total disability shall not be more than $66.67 nor less than $33.33 unless the employee's monthly pay is less than $33.33, in which case his monthly compensation shall be the full amount of his monthly pay. The monthly compensation for partial disability shall not be more than $66.67.

"That if death results from the injury within six years the United States shall pay to the following persons for the following periods a monthly compensation equal to the following percentages of the deceased employee's monthly pay: subject to the modification that no compensation shall be paid where the death takes place more than one year after the cessation of disability resulting from such injury; or, if there has been no disability preceding death, more than one year after the injury:

(a) To the widow, if there is no child, 35 percentum. This compensation shall be paid until her death or marriage.

(b) To the widow, if there is no child, 35 percentum if wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee at the time of her death. This compensation shall be paid until his death or marriage.

(c) To the widow or widower, if there is a child, the compensation payable under Clause A or Clause B and in addition thereof 10 percentum for such widow or widower and children. If a child has a guardian other than the surviving widow or widower the compensation payable on account of such child shall be paid to such guardian. The compensation payable on account of any child shall cease when he dies, marries or reaches the age of 18, or, if over 18, and incapable of self-support, becomes capable of self-support.

(d) To the children, if there is no widow or widower, 25 percentum for one child and 10 percentum additional for each additional child, not to exceed a total of 66.23 percentum, divided among such children share and share alike.

Parents, brothers, sisters, grandparents and grandchildren are also provided for.

The body of a man believed to be William W. Herman, a cigar maker of Henderson, Ky., was found in a clump of bushes at Dutch point, Hartford.

John Farrow, a farm hand, who was employed on the country place of Richard V. Lindsay, of New Jersey, was gored to death by a bull.
